Rome – Naples – Sorrento – Capri – Amalfi

Day 1 – Rome – Naples – Pompeii – Sorrento

Early morning departure for Sorrento. Along the way you will see the Abbey of Montecassino, noted for its famous battle and complete destruction during the Second World War. Upon arriving in Naples enjoy a tour of the city, before continuing on to Pompeii. After stopping for lunch meet with our guide for a tour of the archaeological site of Pompeii. Then visit a Coral and Cameo factory where you will have the opportunity to view or purchase items of ancient craft that date back to the Greek period. Continue to Sorrento along one of the most beautiful panoramic roads in Italy known as the 'Costiera Sorrentina', which the town of Sorrento is named after. Dinner and overnight stay. (D)

Day 2 – Sorrento – Capri – Sorrento

After breakfast transfer to the port of Sorrento for a boat ride to the island of Capri. Weather permitting we take a motor boat to visit the Blue Grotto, followed by a panoramic tour of Capri. After lunch, time at your leisure before returning to Sorrento for dinner and overnight stay. (B&D)

Day 3 – Sorrento – Amalfi

After breakfast depart for Amalfi, the coast's largest town. The main attraction is the 10th century Cathedral of St Andrew that faces the town and can be reached by a long flight of steps. Dinner and overnight stay. (B&D)

Day 4 – Amalfi

After breakfast a day at your leisure. Dinner and overnight stay. (B&D)

Day 5 – Amalfi – Rome

After breakfast, transfer to Sorrento then to Rome. (B)
